REGULAR DEMOCRATIC NATION-AL NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,
STEPHEN ARNOLD DOUGLAS, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HERSCHEL JOHNSON,
OF GEORGIA.

TUESDAY MORNING—AUGUST 7, 1860.

It is thought marvelous by the Boters that Democrats should vote so as to defeat McClellan, when the effect is to elect Cobbs. They can't realize that they are the worst enemies of the Democratic party.
Their success is its ruin. If they carried all the Southern States, as much the worse.

It would be an advertisement to the rest of masked that there was no longer a National Democratic party. This party division between North and South is the last of calamities; rather it is the first step to the end of this Union. We should resist the first step by all possible means.

We are ready to help any class in the South that will stand with the Northern Democracy against these secession movements. They have resisted secession movements in their own Southern hor-ribly. It is a shame to the South if there not patriotic men enough to resist it here.

We regard this Breckinridge movement as the worst ever made in the Union. They demand as an ultimatum what no national party can sustain; what can never be maintained in this Union. We should resist the first step by all possible means.

Sebastien Benjamin himself voted against Mr. Brown's resolution, and proved himself a prudent Commonwealth's Attorney in doing his utmost for the Breckinridge cause. I say, go it. And for the more you say for Breckinridge, the better it will be for the Little Giant. The Breckinridge elector is, or has been on the stump, and I say right here, before I go any further, that there is not an elector of that school who can defend his cause more ably than my friend M. R. B.
Although he has jumped into the fire, still just demands that I must say "go it" for the Little Giant.

On the 5th of May, when Mr. Clingman saw this Senator from Louisiana who had not then sat with Mr. Brown in favor of a slave code, or some legislation to protect slave property in Kansas, he replied:

"Will answer the Senator from the South as a right to legislation when necessary."

"I am a man of law, and I am to pass a law upon every occasion. Anybody that has thought that Breckinridge Convention will succeed in this Breckinridge party should make up his mind to go to the South."

Mr. Benjamin emphatically proclaims that he sees no necessity, and he sees not a straw for one or a thousand Federal laws over the rebellious Abolition Territory of Kansas; that he keeps on dilating about the vital importance, to the South, of the protective principle. If he, Jefferson Davis and the party succeed, then the South, in an exigency as this, will not always disdain to apply it? When he is not now, will they ever manifest by action their sincerity and loyalty to "Southern principles"?

The fact is, there are very few of these disorganizing and bolling "protectionists" who have not, by word and act, owned to the country that it is politically impossible to pass any Congressional law for the protection of slavery in a Territory where the people are hostile to the institution; and that, even if passed, they would be ineffective and void in the presence of a local sentiment opposed to their execution and extinction.

As Mr. Benjamin said, in the Senate, on the 25th May, 1854:

"This principle of the independence and self-government of the people in the distant Territories harmonizes all conflicting opinions, and enables us to banish from the halls of Congress a fertile source of discontent and strife."

Mr. Judah, it is not banished yet, who was more to blame than yourself, and Davis, Buchanan and Company? And what good have you done, or will you do, to the South, by your everlasting agitation?

The IGNORANCE OF OUR NEIGHBORS
—THE NORTH CAROLINA ELECTOR.

The Courier is taunting us because we have not put up a chicken cock over the news of the North Carolina election. We certainly have as much right to do so as it had to fire a gun upon the occasion. Does not the following letter contain an excellent account of Capt. Buford's speech at Frankfort, with his severe strictures on the bogus Marion of the Mexican war?

"Will you not do us the favor to print the following letter in the next number of the Courier? It is not banished yet, who was more to blame than yourself, and Davis, Buchanan and Company? And what good

The YANKEEITES have read a lesson in the vote of yesterday, we apprehend. The game of blindfold chess is now at an end.

The Democrats had no candidate for the Senate, and the other candidates were the most of them made it a point to vote against McClellan. Some of them voted straight for Cobbs. Others voted for Boling or Hopkins. Not a few of them voted for McClellan. At least half the votes the latter got in this city were given by friends of Douglas and Johnson, whilst others did not vote at all. We are glad this election is over. The interest of local candidates, nominated before there was any division in the party, stood in the way, all the State, of any separate action. If the Courtier considers that a subject of congratulation, we certainly do.

W. A. ELLIS.
FOR CITY MARSHAL.
JOS. CROXTON.

LOUISVILLE, KY.,
TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7, 1863.

THE FOOTBALLS OF DESTINY.

WE ARE GOING TO EXPOSE ANOTHER SPOT, UNTIL WE ARE THE FOOTBALLS OF DESTINY. WE ARE GOING TO EXPOSE THE SCHOOL MEANS, AND BECOME ONE GRAND SOUND CAMP. I DO NOT CARE WHETHER WE WIN OR LOSE.
WE CAN NOT GET IT OUT OF OUR MINDS. WE ARE GOING TO EXPOSE THE SCHOOLS OF DESTINY AS AN AFTTER FOR THE SCHOOLS OF THE WORLD, AND AS A MURDER FOR LIES. AND THEN THE PROPHET WILL COME, AND THE PARTS OF THE SCHOOLS OF DESTINY WILL BE REMOVED FROM THE GREAT FIELD OF LIBERTY.

(SPEECHES OF A. DOUGLASS.)

Meeting to Appoint Delegates to the Louisville Convention, in the Seventh and Eighth Wards.

The Democrats of the Seventh and Eighth Wards will meet at the Hall on the corner of Market and Eleventh streets, on the (Tuesday) evening, at eight o'clock, to appoint delegates to the Democratic State Convention, to be held in Louisville on the 11th instant. Let every Democrat in the Seventh and Eighth Wards be present.

Democratic Meeting of the Fifth and Sixth Wards.

The Democrats of the Fifth and Sixth Wards will hold a meeting at the City Courtroom, on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst., to appoint delegates to the State Convention, to meet in this city, on the 11th inst.
Let the friends of Douglas and Johnson turn out!

Have you seen Heller, at the Masonic Temple?

TEACHERS UNION CONVENTION.—A Convention of Teachers will be held at Bowling green, Ky., on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of the month, (August,) under the auspices of the Kentucky Association of Teachers.

TEACHERS—excellent Clergymen, and all connected with the cause of education, are invited to be present.

While this invitation is particularly extended to the teachers of Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee and Kentucky, a cordial welcome will be given to those from our profession of other States. Ladies, either with or without escort, will find that every arrangement has been made for their comfort and convenience.

The whole expense from either terminus of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, including the visit to Mammoth Cave, hotel, stage and railroad fares, will be less than FIFTEEN DOLLARS. Both the New Atlantic and Jeffersonville Railroads have reduced their fares one-half for this Association.

Those attending the Convention will pay full fare, and go, and pay full fare on the return trip, when their tickets are countersigned by us.

Our friends in Indiana and Ohio, whose schools commence on Monday, the 27th, can remain at Bowling Green, and visit the Mammoth Cave, and have ample time to return home by Saturday night.

Those intending to go on the excursion would do well to notify me of their intentions.

City and country papers in the four States mentioned please extend this notice.

Address Box 200, Louisville, Ky.

$5.00 for a satisfactory theory of Heller's second sight.

GRANDE SALE OF CARRIAGES AND LIGHT WAGONS.—We desire to call the attention of persons who may want carriages, buggies and light wagons, to the stock to be offered at Barrow's stable, on Market street, between Second and Third streets, Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock. This is a special opportunity for those who desire any of the above articles, as they are purchased at a low price. The articles are all new, well made, and of best material. Mr. Barrow will also sell some second hand buggies and rockways in good repair.

Heller is mighty astonishing hundreds at the Masonic Temple.

Several cases of coup de soleil have occurred in Louisville within a day or two.
Saturday a dock hand on a steamer at Portland, was struck down as he was walking to the city, but was thought to be recovering soon on Sunday. A laborer at the waterworks was attacked and died. An Irishman, while on his way to the Cathedral, was stricken about 11 o'clock. About the same time a man fell from the oppressiveness of the weather at the corner of First and Broadway.

Have you seen Heller, at the Masonic Temple?

Col. A. M. Gibson, the alternate elector of the Sixth District, Alabama, on the Disunion Braddock and Lane ticket, made a speech the other day in Louisville, for Douglas and Johnson, in which he said he had written a letter some two weeks ago to the elector of the Cyane and Leverett, while commanding the Constitution, Feb. 20, 1815, from the noblest maritime feature of our history, it is the grandest and most glorious of all.
